Services as Canal Governor at Mr. Wilson's Disposal Indefinitely.

SENATE GETS NOMINATION

Regarded as Settled that Colone Will Remain on Zone Until Opening. January 1, 1915.

What little doubt existed as to the attitude of Col. Gosthals toward his appointment as governor of the Canal Zone under the permanent government on the lathmus was dispelled yesterday when Secretary Garrison received from the colonel a cablegram declaring that his services were at the disposal of the President as long as needed.

It is now regarded as settled that Col. Gosthals will remain governor until the canal is formally opened to the world, January 1, 1915, and as much longer after that date as he desires to stay. From what the colonel has previously made known, it is believed he will seek retirement soon after the canal is formally opened, and that the question of the police commissionership of New York will not come up again until after the not come up again until after the first of next year.

Secretary Garrison yesterday made public all the correspondence which, he said, has passed between the colonel and the administration with regard to the col-onel's tenure of position on the Isthmus. On the day that it was announced that it Col. Goethals would be nominated governor, Secretary Garrison cabled him as a tention to appoint you governor, may I assure him you do not desire to retire from service so long as he feels your services are needed?

Goethals Makes Reply. The Secretary had reference to reports that Col. Goethals would seek retirement in order to become police commissioner of New York. Col. Goethals' reply was as follows:

"Referring to your cable of the lith-instant, relative to governorship: will not retire so long as my services are needed." The nomination of Col. Goethals to be governor of the Canal Zone was sent to governor of the Canal Zone was sent to the Senate yesterday.

As soon as he becomes governor of the Canal Zone, instead of chairman of the Isthmian Canal Commission, Col. Goethals will forfeit $5,000 in salary. He new receives $15,000 a year, while the Adamson act provides that the gover-nor's salary shall be only $10,000. The act provides that out of the Canal Zone government's funds only the difference act provides that out of the Canal Zone government's funds only the difference between Col. Goethals' salary as an army officer and $10,000 shall be paid. A bill to prevent this reduction in salary being suffered by Col. Goethals was introduced in the House yesterday by Representative Britten, of Illinois, Representative Britten holds that it is not quite right that Col. Goethals should rewarded for his work in building the canal by having his salary reduced. His bill would change the amount of the governor's salary only as long as Col. Goethals holds that position.

Mitchel Not Perturbed

New York, Jan. 29.—News that Col. George W. Goethals, who is being sought for the police commissionership, had accepted the post of governor of the Panama Canal Zone, did not perturb Mayor Mischel Mitchel today. "I still expect Col. Goethals to Miss Lucy Burns Says Her Organization Is Not Opposing Democratic Party.

PLANNING BIG MASS MEETING

Miss Lucy Burns, acting chairman the Congressional Union, sent a letter to President Wilson yesterday, in which she denied the charges that the union is to fight the Democratic party because the suffragists practically have been ignored. Miss Burns' letter to the President, in part, is as follows: "The Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage has no quarrel with the Democratic party, nor with any other party. On the contrary, we are asking the Democratic party, since it is at the present time in control of our national political system, to use this great power on behalf of the enfranchisement of women. We trust most firmly that the party of which you are the leader and spokesman will take the next great step forward in the Democratic development of the country by passing through Congress at the present session a constitutional amendment enfranchising women.

Gangster Determined to Blow Family of Girl He Could Not Get.

Special to The Washington Herald.

New York, Jan. 22.—Continuing their confessions of Black hand atrocities and East Side gang politics. Alfred Lehman, Anthony Esdaitys, and Rocco Pucciarello, whose revelations at the trial of Angelo Sylvestro for planting a bomb have caused a stir, told today to detectives in the office of Assistant District Attorney Manley the "inside story" of the burning of the Hippodrome Theater. a motion picture place in East Houston street, last August.

The place was set off, it seems, because the janitor of the place blocked a kidnapping scheme engineered by a gang leader. An early alarm saved the kerosene-soaked place from being entirely

Before going into the Court of General Sessions, where Sylvestro is on trial be-fore Judge Resalsky, the three informers rehearsed their testimony. They were questioned by Detectives Jones, Fogarty, and Di Martini.

"Never heard the inside story of the burning of the Hippodrome Theater in East Houston street, did yer?" asked Lehman in his nonchalant way.

"It's a devilish, interesting yarn, an wouldn't mind spinning it for yer. It all happened because the janitor of the place, Joe the Wop, butted in on the love affairs of Gluseppe Fararra, sometimes called Fay, who was the head of the gang in "The reason I'm telling yer is that you'll never get Fay. He beat it for Italy as soon as I and one or two of the other fellers were arrested last September. He hasn't been heard from

"Fay was stuck on a girl named Nellie Pecarro, who lived with her old man at 170 East Houston street. He was really on the level and wanted to marry her, but the old gent couldn't see it that way. He was dead against it."

"He sure was." broke in Pucciarelle, another of the informants, in the office of the assistant district attorney. "Do yer remember how sore Pay was the night he came back and said that the old even scores with him, all right, all right."

"And he came near doing it," resum Lehman. "Fay was so mad that he called five of us together and ordered us to go up to 170 East Houston street and get into the girl's room and kidnap her. We were to bring her to a saloon at Elizabeth and Houston streets and Fay was to wait

$100 for "Joh."

"He told us he'd give us $100 each. The thing looked pretty soft to us and we thought we'd jump at the opportunity to pick up some casy money. We went up to the place and began to look it over. The family lived up on the fourth floor. We went back into the yard of the moving picture show and we could spot the general lay-out.
